TIPS FROM A FESTIVAL FUNDI

NO READMITTANCE

Don't forget that if you leave a venue during a performance you will not be re-admitted until the show is finished. This applies to all venues including ZOL Main Stage.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE

Shows at HIFA start on time, so be punctual to avoid being turned away! Arrive ahead of the pack, as stragglers will not be admitted once shows have begun. Remember that HIFA doesn't do refunds, so give yourself enough time to experience the performances you want to see or hear.

SHHHHHH!!!

Audiences are there to hear the performances, not your ringtone, so make sure your cell phones are switched off and not on silent mode as this interferes with the venue sound systems. At the indoor shows, please stay in your seats and keep quiet.

BE WARM

The evening shows at ZOL Main Stage, Lay's Global Stage and Coca-Cola Green can get a bit chilly, so dress warmly! It is late autumn/early winter in Zimbabwe and so cool evenings, cold winds with a possibility of rain are expected. Be prepared.

ARE YOU SITTING COMFORTABLY?

Feel free to bring along chairs and picnic blankets to appropriate ZOL Main Stage shows. To avoid confusion and sightline problems, those with chairs must find a spot on the right side of the grass arena facing the stage, whilst their lower lying, picnicking companions sitting on the grass should keep to the left of the arena. Be warned that some shows will attract large standing audiences so leave chairs, picnics and blankets at home and feast on the atmosphere instead. Ask the box office staff for more information on shows and what they can accommodate.

PLEASE NOTE: PARKING IN UNDESIGNATED AREAS WILL RESULT IN CLAMPING!

ZIMBABWE COLLEGE OF MUSIC

We're all so proud of the HIFA programme this year. The range and quality of performances and exhibitions are a tribute to a dream team, energetic Board, committed partners and a highly articulate audience. Communal creative thinking makes this Festival what it has become, and I sincerely thank everyone who shares our vision of what is possible if we commit together to a courageous idea.

Welcome and congratulations to all the artists performing in HIFA this year. The number and quality of applications from Zimbabwe and across the globe made the selection process both exciting and humbling. We will do everything we can to find ways for all artists to exchange ideas, skills and inspiration with colleagues, mentors and collaborators at HIFA 2015.

How dull the world would be if we didn't have some form of artistic life. How would we share the things that cannot be communicated in any other way, and have fun at the same time? How would we rise above words to articulate the most poetic aspects of being human? The arts can express the best of who we are as individuals and as a vital nation. Come to HIFA this year and connect with the arts, and with your own perceptions about life. This is our opportunity to articulate who we want to be, so speak up!
We look forward to welcoming you.

MANUEL BAGORRO
Founder & Artistic Director

The work which the indefatigable HIFA Team, ably led by Maria Wilson, the Executive Director, and Manuel Bagorro, the Artistic Director, has put into this year's edition of the annual Festival is truly outstanding.

As we are wont to say euphemistically in our part of the world, it has always been "very challenging" to stage HIFA on an annual basis but the preparations to get HIFA 2015 off the ground turned out to be exceptionally difficult. That the HIFA Team managed to pull off this monumental feat bears testimony to the dedication and passion which each and every member of the team has towards not only their city, Harare, but also their country, Zimbabwe, by creating something positive and enduring. The team guards jealously its commitment to the Zimbabwean people by demonstrating what Zimbabwe can achieve through high quality home-grown products such as HIFA.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I would like to thank the HIFA Team most sincerely for what is often a thankless task. I would also like to thank other key stakeholders who have done their bit to bring HIFA 2015 to fruition. It would not be possible to stage an event of this magnitude and diversity without the support of the City of Harare as well as various Government Ministries and their respective Departments and/or Agencies.

HIFA also owes a huge debt of gratitude to various embassies and donor agencies which have played a pivotal role in the success of the annual Festival from inception in 1999 to date. A special mention must also be made of the Zimbabwean corporate organisations which, in spite of a particularly difficult operating environment, have seen the value of HIFA, beyond marketing and advertising, as a community initiative and have, therefore, continued to lend their unstinting support.

HIFA would like to invite everyone to eloquently ARTICULATE the story about the huge reservoir of TALENT with which Zimbabwe is blessed in the fields of ARTS and CULTURE through dance, music, theatre, spoken word and craft and design.

MUCHADEYI MASUNDA
Chairman of the HIFA Board of Trustees

It is my pleasure to ARTICULATE that HIFA 2015, a true miracle IS HAPPENING! Like all Zimbabweans we have had to face overwhelming difficulties and the HIFA Team has pushed themselves to exhaustion point in ensuring the survival of this initiative. With tremendous sadness I have watched as a culture of selfishness and greed appears to now be entrenched in our communities, and the spirit of wanting something good to happen in our wonderful country, with no hidden agenda or attitude of "what's in it for me?", has all but disappeared. Conversely, the HIFA Team truly believes in what the Festival stands for: a non-racial, multi-gender, multi-cultural, multi-political, multi-aged event that shows what Zimbabwe could be. Their dedication and loyalty to the objectives of the Festival should be applauded. In the midst of an unfathomable economic situation, the Zimbabwean Corporate Community has continued to back HIFA. I implore ALL who participate in HIFA, to take note of this courageous and innovative group of businesses – they have sincerely committed to Zimbabwe and her people. Likewise the Donor Community particularly, has shown an unwavering support of the Zimbabwean people through their backing of HIFA 2015. Together with a steadfast group of Embassies, encouragement of Zimbabwean fortitude is being clearly ARTICULATED. The media captures the essence of the Zimbabwean people and because of the ARTICULATED word that they put out through multiple channels, their partnership with HIFA is not something ever taken for granted by the Festival. In this current context, friends are few and far between – the hifAmigos are genuine friends to HIFA – the Festival celebrates our great country and its arts and culture with you. The Chairman and the Board of HIFA have provided constant sustenance to the Festival Management and Team and have championed HIFA's objectives in all their own activities. Without you, the public, HIFA will not be able to survive into the future. I entreat you all to ARTICULATE your belief in the future of Zimbabwe through your unshakeable support for HIFA 2015.

Salif Keita

With special appearance by Hope Masike

PRESENTED BY DANIDA IN ASSOCIATION WITH OLD MUTUAL

SUNDAY 03 MAY * OLD MUTUAL DAY * ZOL MAIN STAGE * 9PM

The 'golden voice of Africa', Salif Keita has been at the forefront of Malian music for many years, and this concert sees him return to Harare to close our 2015 ZOL Festival Main Stage programme.

'The best thing about him was his voice. A grainy and searing tenor, its power continues to drop jaws, cause goosebumps.'

* Evening Standard

Keita has extended musical frontiers and carved out a distinctive musical voice, in which rock, funk and jazz combine with the deepest West African griot traditions.

"My approach to rock, jazz or soul was a necessity. For someone self-taught like me, playing with Carlos Santana or Joe Zawinul meant rapid progress. Today, that's what allows me to play music of my country with more control, more assurance and depth." Salif Keita

A profound and emotional musical happening in Harare, do not miss this opportunity to hear one of the great musical visionaries of the continent, collaborating with the extraordinarily talented Zimbabwean singer, Hope Masike.

True Vibration

PRESENTED BY THE AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY IN ASSOCIATION WITH CABS

WEDNESDAY 29 APRIL × CABS DAY × ZOL MAIN STAGE × 10PM

“True Vibration are a much needed breath of fresh air in the Australian hip hop scene – musically, lyrically and culturally.”

Triple J

True Vibration are misfits. Mash together two Zimbabwean-born twins raised by artist/activist parents, a touch of Kiwi and a good dose of horns and you have a unique combination. Over the years, the inner-west Sydney trio have developed a strong following thanks to a live show which revels in making you dance in a semi ‘special’, unselfconscious way and songs that combine infectious hooks and razor sharp raps with roaring horns and genre-bending electronic beats. They even have a self-made instrument that literally turns audience members into human drum machines!

They bring a fresh approach to hip hop, blending elements of Afro-beat, dubstep, soul and electronic music to create a sound that could have come out of anywhere in the world, yet is distinctly Australian.

“The diversity of material, easy stage presence, and sheer musicality was on display for all to see, these guys have got mad skills, the sky’s the limit.... these guys are the complete package, combining effortless flows with a full on ‘live’ show.”

M.anifest

PRESENTED BY ROYAL NORWEGIAN EMBASSY IN ASSOCIATION WITH GOLDEN PILSENER AND SUPPORT FROM THE IMPACT MUSIC CONFERENCE AT HIFA 2015

He was prominently featured in five tracks on the Rocket Juice & the Moon album by Damon Albarn.

In 2010, MTV spotlighted M.anifest as a hot new artist on the programme Seven. He has been described as a musician who possesses “the kind of assured, joyful, ruminative voice that made Mos Def into Hollywood’s favorite conscious-rap star” City Pages

Beatenberg

PRESENTED BY GOLDEN PILSENER IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE EMBASSY OF SOUTH AFRICA

FRIDAY 01 MAY × GOLDEN PILSENER DAY × ZOL MAIN STAGE × 7PM

The fresh new face of pop music from South Africa. Or rather, three faces, handsome, young and intelligent. The faces are of Matthew Field, who also has a beautiful voice and plays the guitar; Ross Dorkin, who has beautiful hands that play the bass; and Robin Brink, who has a beautiful life-force and plays the drums like a nutcase.

Their self-declared 'pop' aesthetic is clear in tracks that blend synth elements with 'africanesque' guitar lines and stark, haunting vocals. The name Beatenberg fast became familiar after the release of their debut single Chelsea Blakemore in 2013. With extensive gigging and touring throughout 2013 and 2014, including performances at all of South Africa's major festivals, Beatenberg opened for Bastille, John Newman and 30 Seconds to Mars over the last year, in between a number of showcase events in New York at the CMJ Music Marathon.

Their multi-award nominated collaboration with DJ Clock, Pluto (Remember You), was the biggest smash hit of the summer in Southern Africa and broke the record for most weeks at #1 on radio. Indisputably the band who have dominated the South African music landscape in 2014, Beatenberg are redefining and distilling a contemporary South African Sound.

In January 2015, Beatenberg received 5 Metro Music Awards nominations for Song of the Year (Rafael), Best Hit Single (Rafael), Best African Pop Album (The Hanging Gardens of Beatenberg), Best Collaboration (Pluto (Remember You) with DJ Clock) and Best Group.

Don't miss their HIFA debut on ZOL Main Stage!

Somi

PRESENTED BY DANIDA

THURSDAY 30 APRIL × ZOL MAIN STAGE × 7PM

Acclaimed East African vocalist and songwriter Somi released The Lagos Music Salon last year as her major label debut on Sony Music/Okeh – it landed at #1 on the US Jazz charts. The album, which features special guests Angelique Kidjo, Common and Ambrose Akinmusire, draws material from the tropical city's boastful cosmopolitanism and giant spirit – straddling the worlds of African jazz, soul, and pop, with an ease and a voice that Vogue Magazine simply calls “Superb!”

Born in Illinois to immigrants from Rwanda and Uganda, African and Jazz legacies are crucial to Somi. Often referred to as a modern-day Miriam Makeba, JazzTimes magazine describes her live performance as having “the earthy gutsiness of Nina Simone blended with the vocal beauty of Dianne Reeves,” while Billboard exclaims that she’s “all elegance and awe...utterly captivating.”

She has collaborated with Mos Def, Baaba Maal, John Legend, Billy Childs, Paul Simon, Danilo Perez, Idan Raichel, Jennifer Hudson and many more. In 2011, Somi released her first live album of performances at the venerable Jazz Standard in New York City. The result of which JazzTimes hailed as “stunning... natural fervor and naked magnificence.”

Somi will be joined by charismatic and critically acclaimed Zimbabwean singer and composer, Netsayi Chigwendere.

After a week of all-night improvisation in a beachside lodge, they played their first show together to an awe-struck audience at Sauti za Busara Festival in Stone Town.

Since the two musicians share no spoken language, their collaboration has been an entirely musical conversation, combining Tcheka's soulful singing and innovative guitar style with the sounds of Derek's guitar interpretations of the music of the kora.

The spellbinding sound that results from this exquisitely-matched pair is nothing short of magic.

Lula Pena

THURSDAY 30 APRIL × LAY'S GLOBAL STAGE × 8:30PM

FRIDAY 01 MAY × GOLDEN PILSENER DAY × LAY'S GLOBAL STAGE × 5:45PM

This outstanding Portuguese artist's first album, Phados, released in 1998, won her immediate acclaim. She waited 12 years to release her second album, Troubadour, a collection of stories of passion and pain, mirroring her personal journey as existentialist musician and serendipitous poet. In the past few years she has performed in Cape Verde, Brazil, Chile and around Europe.

For her HIFA 2015 debut, Lula Pena will present subtle and seductive new repertoire.

PRESENTED BY GOLDEN PILSENER

FRIDAY 01 MAY × GOLDEN PILSENER DAY × ZOL MAIN STAGE × 2PM

A Dutch rapper with American blood, Digitzz scored his first solo hit in English with The Jam; the video has been viewed more than a million times. His 2nd EP The Awesome was released in 2014. At 'Down the Rabbit Hole 2014' festival, Damon Albarn invited Digitzz to feature on the Gorillaz track Clint Eastwood.

He was raised bilingual, so it's only natural for him to rap in both languages. His musical style is different from other Dutch rappers, partly thanks to his love for Snoop Dogg's debut album Doggystyle (1993). Just like Snoop, Digitzz' sound is laidback, his flow mellow. He released several tracks as part of the Nouveau Riche collective and recently released The Good Stuff EP on Holland's biggest hip-hop label Top Notch.

HIFA IN THE COMMUNITY

EXPRESSIVE YOUTH

Since its inception, HIFA has placed young people at the core of its activities and organisational structure. The Festival has always drawn its largest contingent of event staff from A' level students and school-leavers. This is part of our efforts at empowerment and employment creation. Through their Festival involvement, these young Zimbabweans are trained and given work experience to equip them to be creative productive citizens.

Young people will also have a highly secure, dedicated Festival area in which they can enjoy performances and workshops. This area, the Simba Youth Zone, will also feature performances from schools and young artists from around the country.

HIFA is also training 70 street youth to be part of the event staff as in previous years. Not only are the youths trained for Festival jobs, they also receive life skills training from various professionals.

EXPRESSIVE IN THE COMMUNITY

There will be a number of outreach performances this year, with local and international artists going out to low-income areas within Harare to perform and workshop with the communities there. Dance companies such as Kuenda Productions presenting Twenty.Fifteen, and other performances among many like Woodlands and We Bleed the Same Colour will be showcased.

2015 will see the continuation of HIFA's efforts to support its host city, the City of Harare, in activities that promote urban regeneration. HIFA actively supports the concept of the infrastructural integrity within the City. This year HIFA will continue with several projects under this umbrella.

HIFA's project in which push carts are used by youths to collect rubbish in several test areas in Harare's high density suburbs will go up a notch. Not only is this pilot project exploring potential employment opportunities but also contributes to health promotion through public sanitation. HIFA is working with the City of Harare on availing a renovated public lavatory dedicated for the use of women. HIFA plans to work with the City of Harare on rehabilitation of pavements within the City's CBD.

In addition to the endeavours carried out in conjunction with the City of Harare, HIFA will be working with its Green Partner, Environment Africa, in conducting environmental awareness activities. Environment Africa will have a team on the HIFA site that will be separating waste generated by the Festival. Environment Africa will also be engaging visitors to the Festival site in general environmental awareness campaigns.

HIFA has as one of its core principles the idea of inspiration towards action. Members of HIFA's loyalty programme, the HifAmigos, who last year independently started a crowd sourcing initiative to raise funds for school children affected by floods, will continue and expand this initiative to assist the destitute aged. We see this as the beginning of many such initiatives with more partners.

GIVING A VOICE TO THE VOICELESS

HIFA works with marginalised communities to give them a space to participate in social endeavour as well as to express themselves fully. HIFA works with street youth, orphans and vulnerable children, prisoners and rural women amongst others, meaningfully contributing to psycho-social support, helping develop life skills and employment opportunities and offering ways to communicate their message to society.

Within all vulnerable groups, women and girls tend to form a subset of further marginalised persons. In a year that marks the deadline for the attainment of the Millennium Development Goals (amongst which gender equality and empowerment of women), HIFA activities will also see women empowerment being a common thread within them. This year, HIFA's un-ticketed FREE stage on First Street will provide an opportunity for the Arts to be a medium for free expression especially by those who do not usually have such opportunity. Performances on this stage happen during each lunchtime of the Festival week, offering access to those with too little time or financial resources to enter the Festival site.

EXPRESSIVE NETWORKS

HIFA is a member of several organisations that promote the creative industry in Zimbabwe and across the continent including the African Music Festivals Network, The Firefest Route (Southern African Festival Tour Circuit) and the Zimbabwe Festival Network.

At HIFA 2015, the Festival will, as has become an annual tradition, host festival directors, administrators and producers from around the world for a Festival Directors' Get-Together. The aim is to promote networking and also scouting of artists, particularly Zimbabwean artists, by visiting programmers and opinion formers.

EXPRESSIVE TALENT NURTURING

With the support of the United Nations in Zimbabwe, the European Union, Royal Norwegian Embassy and HIVOS, HIFA will present a series of workshops for both Arts professionals and the general public. These promote greater cross-cultural interaction resulting in novel creative enterprises.

Under the aegis of its HIFA Access workshop programme throughout the year, HIFA conducts skills enhancement workshops in various parts of the country. For instance, working with the Mahenye Trust in Zimbabwe's South Eastern Lowveld area, HIFA has presented extensive workshops on beading with various rural women's groups around Chiredzi and surrounding areas. Works that they have produced will not only feature at the Festival this year but the skills they have gained will also assist in enhancing their product sales outside of the Festival context.

HIFA also holds workshops and discussion forums with artists in order to address problems, share possible solutions, and work together towards more dynamic artistic development. HIFA actively assists Zimbabwean artistic endeavours throughout the year, particularly other festivals, and regularly lends equipment and expertise to assist in the staging of these artistic activities.

EXPRESSIVE EDUCATION

HIFA has been working for several years with the University of Zimbabwe Theatre Arts Department. On an annual basis, several of the department's top students are attached to the stage management crew of HIFA as part of their degree course assessment. Not only do the students get high-value and hands-on practice for some of the theoretical elements of their degree course, they also get invaluable exposure to experienced local and visiting technical professionals.

This year, with the assistance of the African Music Development Programme (AMDP) and in collaboration with the Busara Festival (Zanzibar), HIFA will extend this educational and skills exchange initiative to technical crew members from the Busara Festival.

HIFA will bring in 4 lighting/sound technicians from South Africa who work with their Zimbabwean counterparts to provide on-the-job training. Skills transfer is an important element of HIFA's overall objectives.

SATURDAY 02 MAY × ZB BANK REPS THEATRE × 9PM

SUNDAY 03 MAY × OLD MUTUAL DAY × ZB BANK REPS THEATRE × 10AM

In a 30-year career Chris Lynam has proved to be, in the words of the New York Times, 'a brilliantly bizarre antidote to today's truculent society'. He has appeared at the world's top comedy festivals, and been a support act for the Rolling Stones and Bob Dylan.

Taking us backstage into the private world of a clown performer, this is the strange and poignant story of an old trouper trying to come to terms with a fading career. Gradually his innermost thoughts become visible - holograms of doubts, dreams and delusions which disturb and torment him until the startling climax.

Developed in collaboration with Tomas Kubinek, John Wright, Kate McKenzie, Josie Lawrence and Clive Howard, with original music by Kevin Sargent, ErictheFred blends film projection and live action in a richly evocative and touching new piece by one of the UK's most original artists. If you think you know clowns - think again.

'A wild clown in a class of his own' The Times

'Surreal unhinged quality which makes for comic greatness'

The Guardian

An astonishing story about ethics, equality and ownership of our DNA.

1951, Henrietta Lacks walks into the coloured section of a hospital in Baltimore with a pain in her abdomen. A cell sample taken without her permission was used as the raw material for some of the most important scientific discoveries of the past 100 years. This solo show takes as its inspiration the story of Henrietta Lacks and the extraordinary life of the HeLa cell line. HeLa comes to Zimbabwe following a successful presentation at the Edinburgh Festival. Winner of the Flying Artichoke Award, Total Theatre Award and Amnesty International Freedom of Expression Award Nominee 2013.

*"This is a piece of theatre that not only entertains and moves, but asks essential questions about medical ethics, vulnerability and the abuse of trust." * The Scotsman*

"She embodies the woman herself with passion, integrity and sensitivity...Onashile's performance is just as compelling as the narrative she skillfully unfolds." Broadway Baby

"The fusion of video, music, monologue and physicality makes HeLa a feast for all the senses. This extraordinary, true story is treated with delicacy and astuteness..." The Peoples Review

WEDNESDAY 29 APRIL × CABS DAY × ZB BANK REPS THEATRE × 8:15PM

THURSDAY 30 APRIL × ZB BANK REPS THEATRE × 10AM

Tim Plewman dons caveman's skins for the first time in Zimbabwe to add to his 1544 sold out performances of the longest-running and most successful solo comedy in South African theatre history. The Broadway production still holds the record of the longest running non-musical solo comedy of all time.

Penned by Rob Becker, Plewman adapted the script for Southern Africa and went on to win the Vita Award for Best Actor in a comedy. Updated, upgraded and totally uploadable to today's world of tweets, selfies and six million Facebook friends, this production is a hilarious and affectionate comedy that explains why men and women see the world so differently, and will have you looking at your partner with new eyes.

After years of hearing that all men are aholes, the Caveman stands up to be counted. And being a troglodyte, standing upright is not an easy thing to do.

"Hysterically funny! Made me laugh until the tears rolled down my cheeks!" Variety

"Hilarious! The perfect date comedy." WOR radio network

"Laugh? I neeearly died! This play is not an exercise in soul-searching, it's a belly laugh night out with similarly bemused friends. Enjoy." Cape Town Argus

"Standup comedy at its best. Hilarious learning experience." Cape Times

Poetic, surreal, intimate and infinitely enjoyable, PSS PSS is a show that puts two contemporary clowns on stage, showing us the game of desire and being two, communicating with the universal language of the body and look. THESE PERFORMANCES ARE 90 MINUTES IN LENGTH

A four-strong, all-male troupe of cycling players perform their fast-pace productions of Shakespeare's Macbeth and The Comedy Of Errors, described by Sir Ian McKellen as 'uproariously funny'.

The HandleBards do Shakespeare differently - using bikes to power various surprises and contraptions, whilst playing all the parts in Director James Farrell's wild 1930s indie-folk frolic.

Macbeth - Shakespeare's incredible tale of ambition, magic and murder

When three witches tell Macbeth that he is destined to become King of Scotland, he and his wife choose to kill the man standing in their way, King Duncan. But in order to maintain his position Macbeth must keep on killing anyone who seems to threaten his tyrant's crown...

The Comedy of Errors - Shakespeare's anarchic farce of mistaken identity and far too many twins

Two pairs of estranged brothers, both called Antipholus, and two pairs of estranged slaves, both called Dromio are unaware of each other's existence. Farcical mix-ups occur when all the twins all meet in Ephesus, a city with a reputation for sorcery.

Director James Farrell's recent directing work includes Twelfth Night (Royal and Derngate) and Pericles (Royal Shakespeare Company).

The HandleBards are supported using public funding by Arts Council England and the National Lottery.

Karlsen-Pratt presents
We Bleed the Same Colour

TUESDAY 28 APRIL × BancABC DAY × ZB BANK REPS THEATRE × 5PM

We Bleed the Same Colour sets the viewer wandering between references to body, relationships, power, fetishes, and the beauty of having a spiritual or physical companion. Two women move freely about a masculine space, playing with the ever-morphing relationships between them. They continuously search for meaning and belonging, looking for symmetry and attachment in the other, craving absolute trust in the way only innocent bodies can. The need for trust is expressed through a series of images from the fetish world and bondage, juxtaposed by poetic images of intertwined bodies barely touched by lighting, into narratives of relational and sexual desires. In loving memory of Kashi and Midnight.

 Dancers: Zofia Jakubiec and Elisabeth Holth

ALL SHOWS AT ZB BANK REPS THEATRE

TUE 28 APRIL × BancABC DAY × 10AM

THURSDAY 30 APRIL × 1PM

FRI 01 MAY × GOLDEN PILSENER DAY × 5PM

Tangram skillfully redraws the boundaries between classical dance and circus. In this beautiful heart-felt duet between an Italian ballet dancer and a German juggler, the unlikely couple explore the trials and tribulations of a relationship with both furious passion and tenderness. Whether she is gracefully hanging from her partner's fingertips like a marionette or he has to shield himself from balls landing on him like missiles - control shifts constantly.

Casadio and Sing breathe new life into their respective art forms as their exquisite skills meet, clash and dance around each other to tell a story of love, scorn and above all, power.

"...full of grace, humour, stunning partnering, clever inventiveness and multi-layered meaning...there are moments of joy, isolation, anger and tenderness." Herald Tribune

"...the mastery of the artists' respective disciplines allows for a risky, highly creative and moving performance" Broadwaybaby.com

"One lets go of everyday life, forgetting it completely. After an hour it is all over, yet the magic of the evening is far from forgotten." Berliner Morgenpost

A decade and a half of a great partnership!

Our ongoing admiration of the work that HIFA does to bring communities together, blend cultures, encourage expression and leave us delighted is what brings us back every year in support.

The Traditional Kitchen

The central showcase will be set around the installation of a traditional rural kitchen with displays of selected related design pieces by invited designers. Under the theme "The Traditional Kitchen", the idea is to move the concept of design beyond mere craft items and begin to interrogate the design that already exists with a view to introduce greater dynamism and competition in the sector.

Co-curated by Doreen Sibanda and Saki Mafundikwa
